Rich in familiarity with Jesus' Jewish world, Gerard Sloyan helps us discover a Jesus thoroughly situated in his own time and place. Grounded in the New Testament gospels, Sloyan's study leads us to an already interpreted Jesus, distinctly portrayed by each evangelist. Going outside the New Testament, Sloyan takes us into the theological questions and developments that culminated in the affirmations of the councils of Nicaea and Chalcedon. This impressive, clearly written work challenges readers to see both the historical Jesus who preached the in-breaking of God's reign and the post-resurrection Jesus whom Christians named Lord and Savior. Gerard S. Sloyan, STD, PhD, is professor emeritus of religion at Temple University and currently visiting professor at Georgetown University, Washington, DC. He has written extensively on Jesus, including The Crucifixion of Jesus (Fortress Press, 1995) and Why Jesus Died (Fortress Press, 2004). The Diary of Steve Mcfall and Kaddie Griffin Xlibris Corporation I recalled the most memorable times I had with him. Some were funny, and some were serious. It seemed like we never had a dull moment in our lives. We did enjoy the time we had together and with our children. He was the man that I thought he would never be. He proved his love to me many times, even when I was too stubborn to see. I wanted him as much as he wanted me. Our children understood the love we had for our family. Those children are the results of our love. I will always love my first love, my only love, Steve McFall. Developing Your Thinking Skills Years 1-2 Pascal Press Wallace's Monthly The Presbyterian Journal
