Bee is a national competition for high school students sponsored by the Close Up Foundation. The main guide is a survey of U.S. history, culture, government, economics, and geography addressed to students and designed to prepare them for that competition. The guide is divided into 13 chapters: (1) "The Revolutionary Spirit," (2) "A Nation Emerges," (3) "Triumph of the Nation," (4) "An Era of Reform," (5) "Emergence as a World Power," (6) "The Sixties and After," (7) "The Constitution," (8) "The Legislative Branch," (9) "The Executive Branch," (10) "The Judicial Branch," (11) "The Electoral Process," (12) "Principles and Practice" (concerning economics), and (13) "America's Land and People." Each chapter opens with a short essay followed by 75 to 100 questions on the chapter topic, some of which are based on maps, charts, and graphs. Appendix 1 contains the U.S. Constitution. Appendix 2 points out aspects of U.S. political thought and government that students should be familiar with. A glossary and a 29-item bibliography are also included. Students entering the competition are responsible for knowing all the information presented in the book; they must also read and understand the information in the appendices, locate the 50 states and their capitals on a map of the United States, and locate all nations mentioned in the book on a map of the world. While intended for those entering the competition, the guide could be used by any student studying the United States. The Coordinator's and Teacher's Guide accompanying the student book provides information for coordinating the competition at the school level and for helping students prepare. The rules of the competition are provided and the format is explained. Suggestions are offered regarding activities and learning strategies to help prepare students, and a teaching guide and answer key to all the questions asked in the student's book. Educational content up close examining the learning dimensions of Education for Sustainable Development and Global Citizenship Education UNESCO Publishing The Spanish Love Deception A Novel Simon and Schuster A wedding. A trip to Spain. The most infuriating man. And three days of pretending. Or in other words, a plan that will never work. Catalina Martín, finally, not single. Her family is happy to announce that she will bring her American boyfriend to her sister's wedding. Everyone is invited to come and witness the most magical event of the year. That would certainly be tomorrow's headline in the local newspaper of the small Spanish town I came from. Or the epitaph on my tombstone, seeing the turn my life had taken in the span of a phone call. Four weeks wasn't a lot of time to find someone willing to cross the Atlantic-from NYC and all the way to Spain-for a wedding. Let alone, someone eager to play along with my charade. But that didn't mean I was desperate enough to bring the 6'4 blue eyed pain in my ass standing before me, Aaron Blackford. The man whose main occupation was making my blood boil had just offered himself to be my date. Right after inserting his nose in my business, calling me delusional, and calling himself my best option. See? Outrageous. Aggravating. Blood boiling. And much to my total despair, also right. Which left me with a surly and extra large dilemma in my hands. Was it worth the suffering to bring my colleague and bane of my existence as my fake boyfriend to my sister's wedding? Or was I better off coming clean and facing the consequences of my panic induced lie? Like my abuela would say, que dios nos pille confesados.The Spanish Love Deception is an enemies-to-lovers, fake-dating. Educational Citizenship and Independent Learning Jessica Kingsley Pub Defining the characteristics of the ideal global citizen - critically reflective, ethically concerned with social justice, and capable of exercising personal control - Rhys Griffith examines how citizenship is promoted, ignored or even suppressed in schools. His study is based on five years' research in 97 educational establishments. He offers an analysis of existing methods of cultivating citizenship, and describes independent learning projects designed to develop the attributes of global citizenship. From this research, Dr Griffith concludes that the current emphasis of the curriculum is on the perception of the child as a passive vessel for accumulating knowledge. This encourages conformity rather than the enquiring and active mental state which Griffith considers essential to the global citizen of the next century. He proposes in detail how the present system can be adapted to promote greater participation among pupils and, through this, increased independence and flexibility.
