Blessed John Henry Newman His Relevance for Today Cardinal Newman's Message for Today Only Life Gives Life Revelation, Theology and Christian Living According to Cardinal Newman The year 1995 sees the 150th anniversary of Cardinal John Henry Newman's entering the Roman Catholic Church. He has been called the father of contemporary Anglicanism and of contemporary Catholicism, just as he has been described as The absent Council Father of Vatican II. Cardinal Newman's School 150 Years of the Oratory School, Reading Third Millennium Information Cardinal Newman for Today Columba Press \(IE\) This stunning book of paintings and sketches displays the artistic genius of Jota Leal, a Venezuelan caricature artist. Leal breaks barriers with his art by encompassing not only the caricature element but also a powerful transformative component. Among his dynamic portraits are those of Johnny Depp, Jimi Hendrix, Salvador Dali, Marilyn Monroe, Al Pacino, and Babe Ruth. At first glance, his paintings are whimsical, and then probing. Not interested in merely capturing the physicality of a person, Leal transforms the figure into some sort of warped reality, while at the same time zeroing in on the core of the subject's being. Leal's style results in a synergy of remarkable painting skill, an intuitive sense of the subject's soul, and, often, a remarkable sense of humor. Leal creates with pencil on paper, acrylic on board, and acrylic on canvas to achieve his powerful images. He paints the inner soul of his subjects, and manifests this as their outer persona. He is an interpreter of the subconscious, translating with his pencils and brushes. Jota has been obsessed with drawing and painting the human face for most of his thirty-six years. He began drawing and painting at a very young age and never studied fine art. He attended one art class at the age of six, but ran away after being forced to paint plastic fruit and empty bottles. Even at that age, Jota knew what he wanted to do. He wanted to paint people and their faces. His art follows the grand tradition of the great portrait painters of the past, as well as the more recent caricature masters. Jota's oeuvre is similar to the likes of Honore' Daumier and Otto Dix. His sense of humor shows the delicate whimsy of a Max Beerbohn or Al Hirschfeld, but with a more fully rendered painting style. He has carefully honed his craft, ever focused on pulling the facade away from the subject, and painting their inner being. Lead kindly Light! Selections from the Prose Writings of John Henry, Cardinal Newman Holiness in a secular age The witness of Cardinal Newman Scepter Publishers Cardinal John Henry Newman (1801-1890), a pre-eminent English intellectual and convert to Catholicism, was brought up in a low Church Anglican home where his grandmother and an aunt first nurtured his love for the Bible. At the age of 15, after a short period of entertaining religious doubts, he had a first conversion to Evangelical Christianity. For a few years he was influenced in his piety and biblical reading by evangelical authors, and later in the sacramental and ecclesial life by Anglican theologians. Then in 1845, through the study of the Church Fathers, he came to a profound understanding of authentic development of doctrine, in particular the exercise of the Pope's office; it was then that he became Roman Catholic. He lived during a period similar to ours: one of economic and technological progress that was accompanied by an embrace of materialism and a subsequent loss of faith and moral breakdown. Newman's writings challenge us, contemporary men and women, living in a world beset by these similar ills. His writings on the subject of holiness, the practice of the Christian virtues, the objective nature of truth and its relationship to the moral conscience, university education, and the role of the laity in society and the Church are very much needed today. Individuals, parish groups, and students at Newman Centers will benefit and learn from Blessed Newman's life example, insights, and teachings found in this book." Beatified by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010, his canonization is imminent. Cardinal Newman and William Froude, F.R.S. Cardinal Newman The Story of His Life Birmingham : Houghton : London : Simpkin, Marshall Cardinal Newman With Notes on the Oxford Movement and Its Men Cardinal Newman The Works of Cardinal Newman John Henry Newman A View of Catholic Faith for the New Millennium Rowman & Littlefield As one of the most outstanding Christian thinkers in history, John Henry Newman continues to influence theology, especially Catholic theology, long after his death in 1890. Yet, his writings on faith, particularly The Grammar of Assent, are difficult to read without guidance and direction. John Henry Newman: A View of Catholic Faith for the New Millennium provides both a comprehensive introduction to Newman's theology and a thorough analysis of its relevance for the Church today. The first systematic analysis of Newman's thought, this book skillfully weaves together the Cardinal's diverse writings on faith with seminal secondary sources and presents an integrated view of his mature notion of Catholic faith. Enhanced by a detailed introduction, biographical sketch, and bibliography, this book explores John Henry Newman's teaching on the relationship between faith and doubt, the role of the will in certitude, the relationship between faith and reason, the personal nature of faith, the function of the magisterium, the importance of dialogue, and the role of the conscience in decision-making. The concluding chapter examines the significance of Newman's thought for Catholic theology today.
