JEWES AND THE LAW

---

Quid Pro Books Jews are a people of law, and law defines who the Jewish people are and what they believe. This anthology engages with the growing complexity of what it is to be Jewish – and, more problematically, what it means to be at once Jewish and participate in secular legal systems as lawyers, judges, legal thinkers, civil rights advocates, and teachers. The essays in this book trace the history and chart the sociology of the Jewish legal profession over time, revealing new stories and dimensions of this significant aspect of the American Jewish experience and at the same time exploring the impact of Jewish lawyers and law firms on American legal practice. “This superb collection reveals what an older focus on assimilation obscured. Jewish lawyers wanted to ‘make it,’ but they also wanted to make law and the legal profession different and better. These fascinating essays show how, despite considerable obstacles, they succeeded.” — Daniel R. Ernst Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center Author of Tocqueville’s Nightmare: The Administrative State Emerges in America, 1900-1940 “This fascinating collection of essays by distinguished scholars illuminates the distinctive and intricate relationship between Jews and law. Exploring the various roles of Jewish lawyers in the United States, Germany, and Israel, they reveal how the practice of law has variously expressed, reinforced, or muted Jewish identity as lawyers demonstrated their commitments to the public interest, social justice, Jewish tradition, or personal ambition. Any student of law, lawyers, or Jewish values will be engaged by the questions asked and answered.” — Jerold S. Auerbach Professor Emeritus of History, Wellesley College Author of Unequal Justice and Rabbis and Lawyers

DEEP RIVER AND IVORYTON

Arcadia Publishing Deep River and Ivoryton, two villages in the lower Connecticut River Valley, were dominated for more than a century by "white gold"-ivory. The growth of the piano industry led to a new use for this exotic and long-treasured substance and, suddenly, the two villages became tied to Zanzibar, the most important exporting place for the tusks of African elephants. With more than two hundred exceptional photographs and narrative, Deep River and Ivoryton tells the story of how ivory shaped the economy and culture of these villages. Two companies, Pratt, Read & Company and the Comstock, Cheney & Company, employed thousands of people in satisfying the demand for new pianos. Probably more than ninety percent of the ivory processed in this country was handled in Deep River and Ivoryton. The demand for new instruments slowed with the invention of the radio, followed by the Great Depression of the 1930s, and the flow of material stopped altogether in the 1950s, when the use of ivory in the United States was banned.

PHOTOREALISM AT THE MILLENNIUM

Harry N. Abrams "In the early 1970s, Meisel began documenting the works of the original thirteen Photorealists. Many of these are still making significant contributions, as evidenced, for example, by Richard Estes's complex street scenes and waterscapes, Tom Blackwell's dazzling reflective storefronts, and John Salt's wistful rusting automobiles, all represented here. Although always approached from a Photorealist point of view, the images depicted by these artists are staggeringly varied - Ralph Goings's diners, Richard McLean's horses, Linda Bacon's toys, Randy Dudley's industrial vistas, Ron Kleemann's Thanksgiving Day parade balloons, David Parrish's pop icons. Wherever possible, the complete works made by the artist in the 1990s are illustrated, and the rest are listed. Such a comprehensive approach makes this volume invaluable to scholars, collectors, and art historians."

Frances Lincoln The garden at the Laskett in Herefordshire is always described as the largest formal garden laid out in Britain since the war and one of most important and interesting gardens of the second half of the twentieth century. It was made by Roy Strong and his wife, theatre designer Julia Trevelyan Oman, between 1973 and 2003. In the latter year Roy's book about the garden and how it was made (The Laskett: the story of a garden) was published, Julia died, and Roy started to remake the garden. Remaking a Garden: the Laskett Gardens Transformed is the story of that remaking, told by Roy, with photographs by Clive Bournell, who has photographed the whole process from the beginning.

FIGURE OUT THE BEST WAY TO EXPAND TO NEW MARKETS AND HELP YOUR BUSINESS BECOME BETTER EQUIPPED TO ENTER THE EXCITING EXPORTING WORLD

DISCOUNTS AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS, UNIVERSITIES, BUSINESS SCHOOLS AND TRADE ASSOCIATIONS (Term and Conditions apply) Each year, UK companies export well over 2 trillion pounds of goods and services. If you want your business to get in on the action, it's crucial to figure out the best way to expand to new markets. Luis MULET has traded all over the world for the last 20 years and has developed a comprehensive export manual to help your business become better equipped to enter the exciting exporting world. WHY EXPORT? "The UK has 0.8% of the world population and without International Trade your business is missing out the other 99.22% of potential buyers for your product/service" - Luis MULET. Why Export? and indeed why should you? If your home market still offers as much opportunity as your firm can cope with, you might be wiser to cover that demand first. Exporting does, of course, spread the risk. Declining demand in one market may be replaced by increasing demand in another. And once you are established in export markets, you will be meeting overseas competition on its home ground and will have more confidence that your home market is not suddenly going to be undermined by imports. The decision to commence exporting is neither easy nor one which should be taken lightly. The export market must be seen as an extension of your natural market, not one you can sell to when the home market is a little slow and then forget about when it picks up again. You must, from the start, be as committed to the export market as you are to the home market. Remember that if there is a demand it will be satisfied. If you do not satisfy it, your competitors will be there, ready and more than willing. I could go on here, but I think you better digest this first. Once you have decided and want more advice on where and how to start you can start reading my book: Export Best Kept Secrets. About the Author: Luis MULET is a partner in the international trade firm of Global Business & Trade Consulting LTD. and manages the firm's London office. His practice is focused on the Latin American market on the subject such as import and export trade law, trade regulations and customs, market intelligence, trade opportunities assessments, and offshore company formation. Luis MULET is a highly experienced international business professional with expertise in export market developments and trade finance across several industry sectors and global markets. He has extensive experience of conducting numerous high-level assignments across multiple industries and geographies spanning the Americas, Europe, Asia and Africa. Luis MULET a keynote speaker on future trends, innovation, trade and investment, and is a well-known international trade expert with a clear understanding of new-to-market entry strategies and conducting business worldwide. He is experienced in foreign investment, business development, operations and project management, strategic thinking, customer and client relationships, negotiating skills, business influencer, commercial management, strategic planning and contract negotiations. Luis MULET has lectured extensively on issues pertaining to import and export law and procedures on behalf of various organisations. He has taught international business as an adjunct professor and served on the board of advisors to several universities programs in International Business and Trade. Luis MULET has been acknowledged for a proven track record of success opening up new opportunities for international companies: Awarded the Franklin Award (2001) and the Meritorious Honour Award (2005) by the U.S. Department of State. Luis MULET holds an MSc in International Business and an MBA from Universidad Pompeu Fabra, a PgCert in International Food Laws & Standards from the Michigan State University and also a PgCert in Trade Policy from the Harvard Kennedy School.

CLOSURE AND OTHER STORIES

Married at nineteen, she was a war widow at twenty. Now 85 years old, Meara Sullivan is determined to reconnect with her husband who died during World War II on D-Day. They knew each other as husband and wife for only five days when Private 1st Class Paul Hughes shipped off for Europe, never to return. CLOSURE, the anchor story of this 7-story anthology, recounts Meara's unlikely trail of discovery. Told in a series of flashbacks, CLOSURE captures life on the home front for Meara and Paul in 1940s Boston and offers a gripping account of the young soldier's part in the greatest amphibious invasion in military history. Dan Celeste is both narrator and participant in each of the anthology's seven tales. His personal story interlaces historical events, intriguing characters, and coming-of-age lessons. CLOSURE and Other Stories spans seven decades, beginning in 1943 and ending in 2011 when Meara completes her quest for renewal.

A destitute tenant farmer, in Pyung Yang, Korea, gives away his twelve year old son to the nationalist patriot, Doh Sahn, in 1908. Following the ardent Patriot, thrusts the teenager into the midst of an international struggle raging in the Korean Peninsula. Japan proceeds to annex Korea into the Japanese Empire. The Patriot fights to thwart the annexation. As the Japanese police close in, the Patriot and the teenager escape to Tsingtao and Vladivostok; the two finally reach New York in 1911, as Korea is no more. The teenager struggles alone to survive in America, and enters Asbury College in Kentucky. Rev. Robert Nahm-Soo Chung in 1926 returns to his homeland. His Evangelistic Crusade Team carries a huge tent of six thousand capacity, on a van-truck provided by American campgrounds and churches. The Team travels even to the remote areas of the Peninsula. He preaches to the throngs suffering under the Japanese, during their darkest hours. Hundreds of thousands of people come to Jesus. He suffers torture in the Japanese prison, for preaching the gospel, and for his close tie with the Patriot. You will walk through his tears and triumphs to preach the gospel. Paul M. Chung, PH.D, is a retired engineering Professor and Dean Emeritus of an engineering college.

HOUSING MICROFINANCE

A GUIDE TO PRACTICE

Kumarian Press Annotation This is the first book to give a comprehensive overview of the new field of housing microfinance practice worldwide. The expert contributors provide guidance to practitioners and policymakers on what works best, and look at the applicability of developing world experience of housing microfinance in the United States. The book takes experience from the separate fields of housing policy and microfinance and explores what each can learn from the other. The contributors review the important issues for microfinance institutions which are considering expanding into housing, or providers of conventional housing loans who seek to offer products for poor clients who lack collateral or a regular salary income. Although there are differences between the low-income housing market in the United States and in developing countries, the book explores lessons from international experience that can be applied domestically. With lessons for both housing policymakers and housing microfinance practitioners, this will be a crucial book in putting the new field of housing microfinance on the map.
